

Terms of Service

payinbtc.me | Effective: May 17, 2026

1. Introduction

These Terms of Service (“Terms”) govern your use of payinbtc.me (“Service”), operated by BTC2B Group OÜ (registration number 17507878), registered at Ruunaoja tn 3, 11415 Tallinn, Estonia (“we”, “us”, “our”). By accessing or using the Service, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, do not use the Service.

2. Service Description

payinbtc.me is a middleware service that connects bookkeeping software (such as QuickBooks, Xero, and FreshBooks) to Bitcoin payment service providers (such as BTCPay Server and Strike). The Service generates payment links on invoices that allow end customers to pay in Bitcoin. When a payment link is clicked, the Service retrieves invoice data from the connected bookkeeping software, creates a Bitcoin invoice through the connected payment provider, and redirects the payer to the payment page.

We do not process, hold, or custody any Bitcoin or fiat currency. All payments are handled directly by the connected payment service provider. We are not a financial institution, payment processor, or custodian.

3. Eligibility

The Service is available exclusively to businesses and professionals acting in a commercial capacity. By using the Service, you represent that you are a registered business entity or a professional conducting business, that you have a valid VAT identification number where applicable, and that you comply with all applicable laws in your jurisdiction, including tax and financial regulations. The Service is not available to consumers.

4. Account and Access

To use the Service, you must create an account and connect at least one accounting platform and one Bitcoin payment service provider. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and connection details. You are responsible for all activity under your account.

5. Acceptable Use

You agree not to:

- Use the Service for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any applicable law or regulation.
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Service, other accounts, or connected systems.
- Interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Service.

- Reverse-engineer, decompile, or disassemble any part of the Service.
- Use the Service to facilitate money laundering, terrorist financing, or sanctions evasion.

6. Third-Party Services

The Service integrates with third-party accounting platforms and Bitcoin payment service providers. Your use of those platforms is governed by their respective terms and policies. We are not responsible for the availability, accuracy, or conduct of any third-party service. We do not guarantee the uptime or functionality of third-party APIs.

7. Fees and Payment

Fees for the Service are published on our website. We reserve the right to change pricing with 30 days' notice. Continued use after a pricing change constitutes acceptance of the new pricing. Fees are non-refundable unless otherwise required by applicable law.

8. Intellectual Property

All rights, title, and interest in the Service, including its software, design, and documentation, remain with us. These Terms do not grant you any rights to our trademarks or branding. You retain ownership of your data.

9. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law:

The Service is provided “as is” and “as available” without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement.

We are not liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including loss of profits, data, or business opportunities, arising out of or related to your use of the Service.

Our total aggregate liability for any claims arising under these Terms shall not exceed the total fees paid by you to us in the twelve (12) months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

We are not liable for any failed, delayed, incorrect, or reversed payments processed by third-party payment service providers, or for any errors in invoice data retrieved from third-party accounting platforms.

10. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any claims, damages, losses, or expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising from your use of the Service, your violation of these Terms, or your violation of any applicable law or regulation.

11. Suspension and Termination

We may suspend or terminate your access to the Service at any time if we reasonably believe you have violated these Terms or applicable law. You may terminate your account at any time by contacting us. Upon termination, your right to use the Service ends immediately. We will delete your data within 30 days of account termination, except where retention is required by law.

12. Modifications to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. We will notify you of material changes by email or through the Service at least 14 days before they take effect. Continued use of the Service after the effective date constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

13. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the Republic of Estonia. Any disputes shall be submitted to the competent court in Estonia.

14. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is found to be unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.
